

'DANGER MAN' PATRICK McGOOHAN

Here are just a few excerpts from some of the DANGER MAN fan mail that came in regularly from all parts of the country.

We've reproduced the letter from Mr. Jay G. Hayes in its entirety because it expresses typical reactions of the DANGER MAN audience who found the show, as Mr. Hayes writes, "truly different," with a great deal of "class."

A World-Wide Release

Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir:

As a rule, I would write all formal correspondence with a typewriter. This particular letter is a spontaneous letter of congratulations for your sponsorship of the show "Danger Man."

This show is truly different and your star, Patrick McGoohan, is wonderful and in a singular adjective has class.

This is the first letter of this sort that I have written but the situation is such that I feel moved to do my part to assure that this show continues.

I am a University of New Hampshire student and upon my recommendation all my fellow students have watched your show and to a man they agree with me as to its merits.

"Danger Man" is the only show that I bother to stay in the fraternity house to watch and I assure that the TV room is packed for each Wednesday's performance.

Please continue to do your part in keeping this show on the air in any way you can.

With all due respect, I plead to you for the continued showing of your sponsored "Danger Man."

Yours very sincerely,

Jay G. Hayes
